

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, September 25, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Mississippi Legal Group Pleads For More State Funding

Mississippi Tests Show Students Deficient In English

Thousands 'Rally for America'

Ethics Commission exec retires

Editorials

War on terrorism : Ships, planes only part of battle

Tobacco fund : Governor should give more details

Delta : Disabled judgment a telling signal

State ethics law born of misfortune, upheld by respect

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Scores for new state test released

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Energy customers will see rates drop 20 percent

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Natural gas prices expected to remain normal this winter

More troops activated in Mississippi

ED: Thumbs up to Musgrove et al at rally

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Monday, Sept. 24, 2001

Magnolia Report

Bad news for Shows? Tim Ford, Jack Gordon oppose Tornado plan; Flaggs defends it saying making heavy Democrat district OK

The Clarksdale Press Register

Hearing set for Wednesday on I-69 route

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

State lotteries losing their luster

Delta Democrat Times Greenville, Mississippi

Public views wanted

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi Suit Filed on Inmate Medical Care

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Daily Journal ED: stop the tornado plan - it would be bad for North Mississippi

Mississippi Business Journal
The Bolivar Commercial
Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi
The New York Times
The Boston Globe
The Los Angeles Times
AP Wire
The Washington Post
stateline.org